Declaration of Peter Zatliokal Pursuant to 37 CFR §1.131

Sir:

I, Peter Zatliokal, hereby declare that:

1. I am a citizen of the United States of America, and currently a resident of the State of Washington, residing in or around the greater Seattle, metropolitan area.
2. I studied Business Administration and Information Systems at the University of Washington, and received a Bachelor of Arts on graduation.
3. I have approximately 15 years of working experience in the Information Technology industry.

4. I am currently the V.P. of Engineering of Wildseed, Inc, responsible for managing a team of engineers in the development of mobile telephone handset and related products. I've been employed with Wildseed since March 2000.

5. I have read the specification as originally filed, and currently pending claims 80-100 of the subject application.

6. I declare that I am able to practice the invention as claimed by the currently pending claims based on the specification, without undue experimentation. I further declare that I and my team have started practicing at least some aspects of the invention based on the specification, without undue experimentation, at least as early as late August 2001, as evident by the attached presentation prepared at the relevant time for a public announcement of Wildseed (known as Gitwit then) shortly thereafter (Attachment A). As can be seen from the illustration, the cover only "covers a portion of a front face of a mobile phone not occupied by a display and a keyboard".

I further declare that all statements made herein of our own individual knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the above-identified patent application or any patent issued thereon.
